#NOTANAGENCY

RECRUITMENT

We are making it easier than ever for tech businesses to scale with niche skills quickly & cost-effectively. Our expert team is available for hire, by the hour! Ensuring that the focus is about scale and impact, not the highest fee per candidate.

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

We know solid project management is why so many businesses can't get by with just good CVs. Excellent candidates require excellent candidate experience. From employer branding, to expectation management & personable, human connection - let us do that for you.

PSYCHOMETRIC ASSESSMENT

A robust selection methodology goes without saying. But we can support you in taking that a step further with our in-house psychologist! We have tailor-made a battery of assessments & report perfect for tech businesses. This can be further tailored to your specific needs, and the data from your exit interviews.

CONSULTING

While recruitment for tech businesses remains our core focus, we support our clients with a range of complimentary consulting services. Workforce planning and people strategy, selection methodology design, HR consulting & support, leadership development and training, counselling and employee well-being.
